Johnny- thought we have an honor system and it is up to the coach/manager to address with their players

Gary- approach the coach/manager to address

Jenn- what if it is the coach/manager; would be willing to have team do UA, would feel like shit if someone get seriously hurt by a person who was loaded on my team

Tim- it is the job of coach/manager- rules and ethics can approach coach/manager

Some treatment teams carry UA's for their teams and are willing to share if others needed them. It is up to the coach/manager to address
